

Geological Modeller

Ref: GM1

Closing Date: 30.09.10

Qualifications and experience

Post Graduate Geological qualification. Working knowledge of Minesight Geological Modelling software. Minimum 5 - 10 years experience in a mining environment (Heavy mineral experience would be beneficial) with exposure to geological modelling and ore reserve estimation.

Role requirements

Will include but are not limited to the provision of a holistic geological service to the operation. Compilation of and maintenance of an auditable geological database and model. Input into Mine Planning, production forecasting, resource and reserve reporting and coordination of exploration activities. Monitoring of product qualities and specifications.

To apply for this position please download an application from the TRG website.

Please send your completed application along with your Curriculum Vitae to:
recruitment@titaniumresources.com

Please specify in the subject line of your email the Reference and job title of the position applied for